A WORD FROM OUR PASTOR, DR. BILL SKAAR

Today is Mother's Day, a day that has been nationally designated to honor mothers since 1914. The designation of this day is a recognition of a mother's value that is found in the history of God's people, starting in Genesis. It was codified in the 10 Commandments when God said in Exodus 20:12, "Honor your father and mother, so that you may live long in the land the Lord your God is giving you." Proverbs 23:25 says, "May your father and mother be glad; may she who gave you birth rejoice!"

One of the greatest ways we can honor our mothers is to live godly lives that reflect Jesus and touch others for Him. That is the focus of our message today, which is entitled "Women — Beautiful in Christ." Godly character is beautiful, and in the life of Ruth, we will see traits that all of us should have.

God is good. You are loved. Welcome to worship!
